

Analyzing an event using different factors.

SOCIAL could be for example:

- Class perspective, could a country, a person, a political party use the different social classes to gain support, control, financial aid etc.
- alienation by certain groups in the society.
- Use of Youth? Women? Minorities?

POLITICAL

- Events, decisions made by politicians, by kings, by groups in society.
- Actions made by politicians etc.
- International events as well as national.
- Personal characteristics.
- Method used to gain political aims, force? legal?
- Change of constitutions.
- Ideology.

ECONOMICAL

- Unemployment, hyperinflation, inequity, depression.
- Agricultural sector vs urban sector.
- Welfare state? For whom?

RELIGIOUS

- Opposition within the religious society?
- Anti-religious acts.
- People's beliefs are sacred.

MILITARY

- Use of force needs support from military branch.
- Militia vs standing army.
- Did the military support the leadership, why, why not?
- Big military = opportunity to influence international events.

CULTURAL

- Is Bolshevism Russian and is Nazism German?
- Why no American Hitler?
- Propaganda and use of culture to get the message / ideology to the people.
- Movies, the arts etc.

TECHNOLOGY

- Use of Radio in Nazi Germany for example.
- Nuclear arms gap in Cold War.
- Means to produce propaganda.
- Means to produce welfare.
- Means to produce weapons.